Mr. Simmons Re-elected Trustee.

At the meeting of the taxpayers of the Bamberg school district on Monday, Mr. G. O. Simmons, whose term as trustee has expired, was re-elected on the board for another term of five years. The same levy was again fixed for next year, six mills for general purposes and three mills for payment on the school debt. This, in addition to the constitutional three-mill tax, makes the levy 12 mills, an unusual heavy one in this district.

Carlisle Catalogue.

The catalogue of the Carlisle school is just off the presses of The Herald's job department. The catalogue is very attractive, being of a different design than any previous one. The cover is richly embossed in gold, and the catalogue contains 40 pages of reading matter and 15 pages of cuts, including a large double page cut of Guilds hall. Head Master Guilds states that he has already received many requests for catalogues, and he is expecting a record attendance next session.

To Dedicate Church.

Next Sunday morning the new colored Methodist church will be formally dedicated. A very interesting programme has been arranged. We are requested to state that a special invitation is extended the white friends of the church to attend the dedicatory services. A special provision will be made to accommodate them, and a space will be reserved.

The dedicatory service will be held at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. Bishop Leete, of Atlanta, is expected to be present and preach the sermon. In the event that he is unable to be present, Rev. L. M. Dunton, D. D., president of Claflin University, will preach the dedicatory sermon.

The new church, which has just been completed, is a most creditable edifice, costing between $6,000 and $7,000. Rev. L. W. Williams is pastor of the church. It is stated that the entire cost of the structure has been paid in, with the exception of perhaps $1,000. The members of the church have worked faithfully, and they feel very proud of the new church. The white people of the city have contributed liberally toward the cost of the building, and this fact is appreciated by the officers and members of the church. It is expected that the remainder of the church debt will be speedily wiped out, and that the building will soon be free of all encumbrances.

Denmark School Closes.

The closing exercises of the Denmark high school were held on last Thursday and Friday evenings, bringing to a close a most successful term. The exercises were successfully carried out, and reflected much credit on both teachers and scholars.

The first of the exercises was the declamation contest for the Goolsby medal, which was entered into by Misses Hattie Mae Sandifer, Willie Dell Hutto, Kathleen Boylston, Agnes Goza, Samuel Ray, Fitzhugh Cox and Franklin Creech. Samuel Ray was the winner of the medal.

Class exercises were held Thursday night and the following programme was carried out: Song, "My Heart is in the Highlands," chorus; historical, Fitzhugh Cox; essay, Miss Gladys Still; song, "Soft, Soft Music is Stealing," chorus; poet, Franklin Creech; recitation, Miss Hattie Mae Sandifer; music, "Humoresque," Miss Maude Ellzey; essay, Samuel Ray; song, Miss Richards; class will, Miss Kathleen Fogle; prophecy, Miss Agnes Goza; song, "Graduation Song," graduating class.

Friday night, although the weather was threatening, the large auditorium of the school building was filled before time to begin the final exercises.

The following was the programme: Invocation, the Rev. H. Grady Hardin; song, "The Flowers That Bloom in the Spring," chorus; reading of essay, Miss Christabel Mayfield, winner of prize offered by the Graham chapter, U. D. C.; song, "Cuckoo," chorus; yearly honor roll, Grace Wiggins, Sarah Califf, Claudie Holton, Dorothy Matthews, Margaret Brooker, Dorothy Riley, Edward Cox, Martha Cacioppa, Julia McCrae, Willie Dell Hutto, Genie Fogle, Barnwell Huggins, Martha Wiggins, Frances Guess, Christabel Mayfield and Vera Wiggins.

Mr. Chitty, of the Fairfax school, awarded certificates to those who have been neither absent nor tardy during the school year. Certificates were awarded to the pupils entering the high school. These certificates were presented by the Rev. H. Grady Hardin. High school diplomas were presented by the Rev. J. D. Huggins. The Rowell prize for the highest average made in the 11th grade was awarded to Franklin Kirkland Creech.

Orangeburg Defeats Bamberg.

The Bamberg Business Men's Bible class was defeated in the contest with the Orangeburg Young Men's Bible class for the largest attendance during the month of May. The total Orangeburg attendance during the month was 512, and the total attendance for Bamberg was 354 during the month, according to the official figures. Both classes made wonderful progress, and the friendly rivalry between the two classes resulted in the building up of large and influential classes.

Another smoker will be arranged by the Bamberg class for the near future. When the contest began both classes had only a small membership, whereas now both have doubled their class rolls several times. As Bamberg threw out the challenge to Orangeburg, the local class deserves a lot of credit for doing some excellent work.
